Event: 1st Drug Court Graduation at Harbor Justice Center, Newport Beach Facility

The court and community will celebrate the accomplishments of a remarkable young woman who has turned away from drug addiction and successfully completed the Orange County Drug Court program, a rigorous but non-traditional court program aimed at rehabilitating drug abusers

As a result of participating in the drug court program, the young graduate has been sober for more than a year after five years of prior drug use. She resides in Costa Mesa and has resumed her part-time studies in psychology at Orange Coast College in Costa Mesa.

Date: Monday, April 9 at 1:30 p.m.
