CONFERENCE SCHEDULED TO EDUCATE TEENAGERS ABOUT "UNHEALTHY" RELATIONSHIPS

Laguna Niguel - The Orange County Superior Court through Judge Pamela Iles is sponsoring "Love is Not Supposed to Hurt," a no cost teen outreach conference about relationships. The conference is scheduled for Monday, February 18, 2002, from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

"Teens will learn how to spot "bad date" behavior, how not to get involved in unhealthy relationship choices, and that early intervention discourages future unhealthy behaviors," said Judge Pamela Iles. Nationally known experts in the field of teen relationships Dr. Jill Murray and Alyce LaViolette and specialty-trained youth leaders will facilitate dialogue among teens during breakout sessions.

Teens can register to attend the conference by calling the Harbor Justice Center at (949) 249-5175. The conference will be held at South Coast Christian Assembly located at 31501 Ave Los Cerritos, San Juan Capistrano.

The conference is a result of a clergy conference on domestic violence held last May in which significant interest was generated to educate the area's teen population about healthy dating relationships. Thanks to the generosity of Supervisor Tom Wilson and the Gillespie Foundation, the conference is free and is open to all teens in Orange County. Lunch and snacks will be provided to attendees at no charge.
