Celebration at Civic Center Plaza of the Flags, Monday April 22
"Bringing Honor to Victims"
National Crime Victims Week

Santa Ana - Victims of crimes will be honored at a fair and program scheduled for Monday, April 22, 2001 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at The Plaza of the Flags, located behind the Central Justice Center on Civic Center Drive in Santa Ana.

Organized and sponsored by Community Services Program (CSP), Victim Assistance Program, the program includes remarks by Orange County District Attorney Tony Rackauckas and Sexual Assault Victim Services Prevention Educator Dawn Foor. Entertainment will be provided by teen opera singer Melanie Ott and the Academy of Performing Arts in Huntington Beach to commemorate the events of 9/11. Information and food booths will be setup, including a display of the Clothesline Project. The Clothesline Project is a visual display of artwork designed by women survivors of violence.

The program and fair are organized as part of National Crime Victims' Rights Week. This year's theme is "Bring Honor to Victims," which is designed to heighten public awareness about victims' rights and available services. A partial list of program participants is attached. For further information, contact Victim Assistance Program Director Pamela Kefi at (949) 975- 0244.
