Bonds Issued By Legion Insurance Company
To Secure the Release of Any Criminal Defendant
Are No Longer Accepted by the Court

Santa Ana - The Orange County Superior Court received notice that a Pennsylvania court has declared Legion Insurance Company to be insolvent and ordered the liquidation of the company effective July 28, 2003. It further ordered that all bonds issued by Legion Insurance will be cancelled no later than August 27, 2003.

After its review of all pending Orange County criminal cases with bonds posted by Legion Insurance Company, the Court found that all bonds on these case have been exonerated and it is not necessary to cancel any of the bonds.
