Scholarship Awarded to Orange County Superior Court Employee Tina Payne

Santa Ana - The Institute for Court Management and the State Justice Institute (SJI) have awarded Orange County Superior Court employee Tina Payne a scholarship to attend a seminar for mid-level court managers at the National Center for State Court's Institute for Court Management in Williamsburg, Virginia.

The seminar, scheduled for November 15 - 19, 2004, will focus on education and training needs intended to increase the technical and leadership skills of the participants. Ms. Payne has been employed by the Court since 1988 and is currently the Business/ Operational Architect for the Court's Project Management Office (PMO.) The office is responsible for the development, deployment and implementation of case management systems in Orange County. Ms. Payne assists with ongoing project planning, specifically identifying operational issues within case management development.

* The Institute for Court Management's mission is to educate, inform, and support the management and leadership of the state courts.

* The State Justice Institute is a non-profit organization established by Federal law to award grants to improve the quality of justice in State courts nationwide, facilitate better coordination between State and Federal courts, and foster innovative, efficient solutions to common problems faced by all courts. More information about the Institute is available on the SJI web site (<http://www.statejustice.org>).
