Harbor Justice Center, Laguna Niguel Facility
Scheduled to Close July 3, 2008

Santa Ana— The Harbor Justice Center, Laguna Niguel facility will close July 3, 2008 to begin final design and construction of a new 18 courtroom justice center (14 new courtrooms and the reuse of the existing 4 courtrooms) at the existing Crown Valley Parkway site, announced Presiding Judge Nancy Wieben Stock.

“It’s taken years of planning and the Court looks forward to the construction of the new facility that will better serve the growing South Orange County community of more than 600,000 residents,” said Stock.

Criminal matters, misdemeanors and felonies, handled at the Laguna Niguel facility will be transferred to the Harbor Justice Center, Newport Beach, 4601 Jamboree Road, Newport Beach. The Harbor Justice Center, Laguna Hills, 23141 Moulton Parkway, Laguna Hills will continue to handle traffic, civil, and small claims matters.

The Laguna Niguel facility is scheduled to reopen in 2011.

Additional information regarding the closure and transfer of court matters to other locations is available by calling 1-866-901-3011 or visiting the Court’s Web site at www.occourts.org.
